

One-on-One Coaching

Most successful traders didn't get to where they are on their own. One common denominator that you will find with any successful person is that they had help getting there - a coach or a mentor that guided them to the highest levels of success. Think about it. Name a top tier athlete that doesn't have a coach (or coaches) helping them to improve by giving them another perspective of what they can do better or what they need to stop doing in order to get the results they want. Trading is a lot like sports in that it is the small things that we sometimes miss that trip us up the most!

A request I often get is: "Wendy, can you coach me one-on-one?". The reality is that, as the number of clients I have has grown to now include many thousands of traders from all over the world, this is just not possible. However, I have a solution that I think you will love.

With one-on-one coaching from my small personally trained team of coaches, we can help accelerate your journey to becoming a better trader. We do this by starting with the end in mind, meaning we seek to understand your trading goals and ensure you understand exactly what it will take to turn these goals into reality. You are the one doing the work, but now you would have someone guiding you step-by-step through it.

Many of my most successful students credit coaching with allowing them to move forward with greater confidence, knowing they are not alone.

You might be asking: "How do I know if a coach can really help me?". It does not matter if you are a beginner, intermediate, or an advanced trader my coaches are prepared, as active traders themselves with many years of live trading experience, to help get you to the next level.

I built my coaching team so that you could have someone that will work with you one-on-one AND be there for you as often as you need it!

With thousands of clients and just a small group of coaches we are committed to making sure that each person we invite into coaching is the right fit for us and that we are the right fit for you.
